

A Prayer for people who are searching...

It is suggested you say this prayer slowly, phrase by phrase, and remain silent for a while afterwards.

God, I am not sure if you really exist.
Accept me with all my doubts and fears
And show yourself to me in such a way
That I can somehow move forward.

Show yourself to me as love,
Show yourself to me as forgiveness
Show yourself to me as new life,
As the promise of a new beginning.

If there is anything I have done or not done
Which prevents me seeing you,
May I have the strength to turn away from it,
And find a wholeness I have not known before.

Jesus, although I do not know who you really are,
I invite you to be the one who fills my inner emptiness,
Who lightens my darkness,
The one I can entrust myself to without reserve
As I go forward on this journey of exploration.

May I allow myself to be surprised by you, God of surprises,
Surprised by a new reality of freedom, joy and peace.
Help me in my weakness and doubt as I open my heart to you,
Let me know your love for me.

Now rest quietly and give space to God.

For more information about the Catholic faith please contact:
Catholic Enquiry Office, 114 West Heath Road, London. NW3 7TX
Tel: 020 8458 3316 Website: www.life4seekers.co.uk

© Catholic Enquiry Office 2005